

CEO School

Most CEOs work their way to the top through their drive or talents and they never really get trained to be a CEO. They are often very good in certain areas and don't even understand what they are supposed to do in others. We work with clients and train them (as well as their leaders) to help them build a productive team and address the critical issues. The result is increased morale, decreased burnout and a maximized bottom line.

Build Your Business by Building Your People

It is vitally important to get the right people in the right job.

Selecting the wrong person for a job, or even selecting the right person for the wrong job, can be a costly disaster.

THE RSTMM® Series

Collaborating with CEOs, Henyon Consulting works with clients to install the RSTMM® process. By Recruiting and Selecting outstanding talent, Training, Managing and Motivating the new and current talent – the opportunities for success are endless and costly mistakes are nearly eliminated.
Additionally, we teach businesses to redefine their Marketing programs to get them marketing outward.

In cooperation with Corporate Consulting, Inc., Henyon Consulting uses systems that have been proven successful for more than 30 years.

Not ready or not have the right profile to become a client?

We can still make your company better. Henyon Consulting can provide an in-depth workshop about the world of behavior.

Once the leaders of a company think behaviorally, they are on their way to achieving more success.
